WHEREAS, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990 ("ROH") Section 22-9.3(a)(3)(A)(i), states that in exceptional cases, a new or existing park, site or facility may be named for a deceased individual if the individual has a "significant association with the park, site, or facility"; and

WHEREAS, ROH Section 22-9.5(f), authorizes the Council of the City and County of Honolulu ("Council") to "...on its own motion, designate a name for a new or existing park, site, facility, or any portion thereof, or memorial, consistent with the requirements set forth herein, by adoption of an appropriate resolution"; and

WHEREAS, Zachary Manago detailed his love and enthusiasm for bicycling and his reasons for and vision of more bicycle lanes in Hawaii in a four-page essay that he completed for a class in which he was enrolled at HPU; and

WHEREAS, on December 17, 2010, despite having taken thorough safety precautions to ensure a safe bicycle ride, such as wearing a helmet and having bicycle lights, Zachary Manago was killed as the result of a hit-and-run accident with a motor vehicle, while cycling along Kamehameha Highway during an organized bicycle ride; and

WHEREAS, as part of the implementation of the City and County of Honolulu's Complete Streets plan, Ala Napunani Street was converted from two lanes in each direction to one lane in each direction, with a center left-turn lane and buffered bike lanes; and
